"We are proud that our team was distinguished in the ranking, which is so meaningful for the industry. "On behalf of the entire tax advisory team I would like to thank our Clients for the trust placed in us, the Competition Chapter for the award, and to congratulate the other winners and distinguished," she added.

TPA Poland is on the podium for the first time in history (moving up from the 5th to the 3rd position in the ranking).

"What our Clients appreciate is the efficiency of our actions and diligence in every phase of the project. We are grateful for all previous challenges, as it is them that allowed us to receive this distinction. Together with our specialist, we will endeavor to make both existing and new Clients feel that they are offered professional and comprehensive assistance. Thank you for the trust, we will certainly continue to work on the best solutions," said Wojciech Sztuba, Managing Partner, TPA Poland
