Moore Stephens Central Audit Team Joins TPA Poland

The merger of the Moore Stephens Central Audit team and the international advisory company TPA Poland is now a fact. According to the concluded agreement, on September 2, 2019, over 60 experts and tax, accounting and audit specialists so far operating under Moore Stephens brand, will join Warsaw-based tax advisory, audit, accounting and payroll outsourcing teams of TPA Poland. As a result of the merger, with its team of more than 270 experts and turnover exceeding EUR 13.5 million in 2019, TPA Poland will be placed in the midst of the largest and most dynamically developing consulting companies.

TPA is a leading international consulting group, already present in 12 countries of Central and South-Eastern Europe. It hires more than 1500 experts in 30 destinations. TPA Poland is a member of Baker Tilly International – one of the 10 largest advisory and audit networks in the world. It consists of 126 independent member companies, which employ over 34,000 people in 746 offices across 145 countries.

The advisory market belongs to highly competitive and modern sectors of the economy. Clients there expect a comprehensive, multidimensional and trendsetting approach. Companies providing services in this area belong to the largest expert organizations and outdo one another in offering innovative solutions that create real value for clients.

“For an advisor of the future, hard professional competencies are just as important as fluency in modern information and communication technologies. This requires combining accurate forecasts on future clients’ needs with the ability to invest continuously in maintaining the competitiveness of the services offered. Having the Moore Stephens Central Audit team join TPA improves the range of our advisory competencies and, at the same time, increases our capacity for technological transformation,” said Wojciech Sztuba, Managing Partner, TPA Poland.

For 15 years TPA Poland has been offering services in the area of tax, transaction and corporate finance advisory, financial audit, accounting outsourcing and payroll administration in its offices in Warsaw, Poznań and Katowice, and since 2018 – legal advisory services under the Baker Tilly Woroszyńska Legal brand as well. TPA Poland and Baker Tilly Woroszyńska Legal are the exclusive representatives of Baker Tilly International in Poland – one of the largest global networks of consulting companies.

“We are happy to join as dynamically developing company as TPA Poland. The competence match of the two teams and their similar organizational culture aimed at looking for new challenges and providing top-quality services are conducive to a smooth merger of the potential of our companies,” said Monika Tuzimek, who will take the position of a Partner in the Audit and Business Advisory at TPA Poland.

TPA Poland Partners will be also joined by Iga Kwaśny, who will take the position of the Partner in the Accounting and Payroll Outsourcing Department.

“The merger of the Moore Stephens Central Audit team with TPA is undoubtedly a unique event in the saturated market of professional services in Poland. It will allow not only to broaden the range of services and industry specializations, but also to significantly increase organizational effectiveness,” said Krzysztof Horodko, Managing Partner, TPA Poland.
